

The Big Snowy Christmas for schools

At The Met, Bury on Thursday 19 December (10.30am & 1.30pm)

Support your school's local theatre this Christmas, with a perfect show for KS1 children at The Met.

The Big Snowy Christmas is a hilarious, heartwarming tale about a brave little bear who helps to save Christmas. Filled with puppetry, music and creativity it's a lovely show for young theatre-goers, particularly Reception and Year 1 children.

The show is produced by Little Blue Monster; a company who make beautiful shows for children and their grown-ups, and who return to work with The Met for the third Christmas running, following successful shows Santa's Little Helper (2017) and Lily & The Christmas Snow Bear (2018).

The Met is a fully accessible theatre in Bury town centre, just 50 metres from Bury Interchange, and with a coach drop-off point immediately outside our front door. Throughout the year we present a range of music, theatre and comedy events bringing brilliant emerging and established talent to Bury. The Met is home to a programme of weekly music and theatre workshops helping children and adults of all abilities to discover and increase their creativity.

Our historic building was extensively renovated in 2016 making The Met a real point of pride for the town and a perfect place for a school visit.
